QUESTIONS DESERT CLAIM.

If Crops Are Raised on Desert Land Does It Become Agricultural Land?

The contention has been made at Portales that a desert land claim on which crops are raised is subject to re-entry as agricultural land and the decision of the court is anxiously awaited. John R. Johnson made a desert claim entry on 80 acres of land near Portales and has made two annual proofs as the law directs. Thomas B. Lockwood has filed a contest on the ground that the land is not subject to entry as a desert claim because two crops have been raised on it without irrigation. He contends that if crops can thus be raised on an alleged desert claim, it is thereafter to be considered agricultural land and subject to re-entry or contest. Testimony has been taken in the case and the decision is awaited by all holders of desert land claims.

DEATH OF ANTON FINK.

This Well Known Business Man Came to Santa Fe in 1885.

Anton Fink, a business man of Santa Fe for almost twenty years, died suddenly yesterday morning at 4 o'clock at his home on Galisteo street in that city. He was in his butcher shop Monday morning and went home feeling ill. Yesterday morning at 4 o'clock Mrs. Fink was awakened by her husband sitting up in bed and saying: "It is so dark, I can't see." A moment later he laid down and was dead. Heart failure was the probable cause. Mr. Fink was born in Hesse, Germany, in January, 1861. He came to Santa Fe in 1885 and has ever since been engaged in the butchering business, part of the time for himself. He is survived by a widow and a grown up stepson and stepdaughter. He carried a life insurance policy for $2,000. Mr. Fink was a member of the cathedral congregation.

I. R. HOLT.

His Death at Las Cruces a Few Days Ago.

The death of I. R. Holt occurred on Thursday evening at about 9 o'clock. He has been in feeble health for some time, and his death while not entirely unexpected nevertheless comes as a great sorrow to the many people who have known Mr. Holt for years. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon and was conducted by the Masonic lodge.

Isham R. Holt was born in Cumberland county, Kentucky, on the 18th of April, 1819. In 1854 he removed to northern Arkansas and in 1859 was married to Lydia E. Ryan. Eleven children composed the family, six of whom are living—Isham R. Holt, Jr.; Mrs. Alice Johnson, Selma, Cal.; Mrs. May Logan, Mrs. Wm. Viscarra, Elgin Holt and Walter Holt. Mr. Holt crossed the plains by wagon in 1879 and settled on the San Francisco river in Socorro county, being one of the first settlers in the locality. He embarked in the cattle business and still retained his interest there at the time of his death. "Holt's ranch" was widely known in that section of the country. He removed to Las Cruces in 1892 to take advantage of the educational facilities that this place affords. He was for fifty-four years a member of the Baptist church and for about forty years has been a Mason.

Mrs. Holt has the sympathy of a vast number of friends in her sorrow.

THE NEW STAMPS.

The Flag Will Be Included in the Design on the Two Cent Stamps.

For the first time since 1869 the post-office will use the United States flag in a stamp design and it will appear in the new issue of 2 cent stamps which is now under preparation. The present portrait of Washington used on the 2 cent stamp is from Houdon's profile cast, but it will be succeeded by a photograph of Gilbert Stuart's famous painting. The Stuart picture was exclusively used up to 1847, and it was still used as late as 1870. The new 2 cent stamp will contain the likeness of Washington in the central oval. Above this, in a panel, will be the words "United States of America." Draped on each side and occupying about two-thirds of the length will be two flags forming the background upon which the oval seems to rest. Below the oval will appear the word "Washington" and in small figures the dates of his birth and death. The flag is a favorite emblem for republics but not for monarchies.

WHITNEY TAKEN BACK.

Was a Paroled Prisoner from the Kansas Reform School.

Joseph Whitney, the young negro indicted at Alamogordo in the Otero county court for pointing a deadly weapon at Walter Hodge, was acquitted. Whitney was a paroled prisoner from the Hutchinson, Kansas, reform school, and on the request of the officers of that institution he was held until an officer could arrive and take him back and have him complete his sentence.

Marion Tally was indicted for murder in the first degree for killing Bud Clayton near Cloudercroft about three weeks ago. His trial is set for the first Wednesday in May, 1903.

The tramp who has been in the Almogordo jail for the past ten months charged with the murder of a man named O'Shea at Jarilla was discharged by the grand jury.

POLICE COURT.

A Few Cases Handled in Good Fashion By the Magistrate.

By reason of a few important cases police court held an extra session yesterday afternoon.

Jose Chavez, charged with assault and battery, whose hearing was postponed until the afternoon, received ten days for striking C. Gonzales in the face. Gonzales had presented a bill for 40 cents, but received a lovely eye instead.

Several hoboes are doing time for infesting the city with their presence.

The case of the young native girl charged with theft of small articles was carried over from yesterday afternoon until this morning. The case is very complicated. The girl is very small and probably does not realize the immensity of the crime. Her testimony was evidence to convict her, as she denies ever having worked for the people and states that she was only in the house once. The evidence given by the plaintiff proves that the girl had worked there four months and was caught in the house while the family were absent. An effort will be made to recover the stolen property and the girl punished according to the dictates of the law.

RICHARDSON MAY CONTEST.

Claimed Over One Hundred Votes Cast on Affidavit in Alamogordo Are Illegal.

It is reported that Hon. G. A. Richardson, recently democratic candidate for territorial council from the ninth district, will contest the election of Judge A. B. Fall, the independent candidate, says the New Mexican, on the grounds of the casting of over 100 votes in Alamogordo on affidavit. The voters, whose votes were sworn in, failed to register, and the contention is made that these votes are illegal, inasmuch as the federal statute making provision for such cases was repealed in 1894.

DISTRICT COURT.

The court tried the case of John A. Lee vs. Weir & Bliss, suit for recovery of $800 on account of lumber furnished. The defendants pleaded an offset, being a discount of 10 per cent on all lumber furnished, which they claimed would exceed amount of plaintiff's bill. The court after hearing the evidence held no offset established and rendered judgment for plaintiff.

In the case of the estate of Rafael Armijo vs. Ben Meyers, an appeal from the probate court, the court found on the evidence that the defendant, as administrator, should account to the complaining heirs for the sum of $2,100, proceeds of estate in administrator's hands.

The case of C. A. Grande vs. Gustav Voekel, was dismissed by the plaintiffs.

The case of E. L. Lockhart vs. Jacob Schick was continued until December 18.

Yesterday one case was disposed of by Judge Baker, in chambers. Mrs. M. E. Kennedy made application to be reinstated as guardian of the minor children of Charles H. Harding, of Gallup. After hearing the evidence the court refused to grant the application and reappointed Mrs. W. H. Kuchenecker, of Gallup.

HUNDREDS FEET OIL IN A WELL.

The Flow Near Pastura as Much as More Than Reported.

A correspondent of the El Paso News, writing from Santa Rosa, under date of November 18, says: The reported strike in the Adams oil well, twenty-five miles from Pastura station on the El Paso & Northern railway, was no hoax, and has proven to be a more valuable one than at first supposed.

The president and two directors of the company boarded the east bound Rock Island train at this place yesterday, returning to New York after a visit to the well in compliance with a request wired them immediately after the oil flow was found.

The gentlemen are elated with what they found at the well. While water was encountered in such large quantities as to prevent further drilling, the oil taken out is of an extraordinary fine quality, and besides the five barrels taken out, one hundred feet of it is now standing in the well.

Further work on the well has been suspended until casing can be received to case the water out. This has been ordered. As soon as the water is cased out the well will be sunk deeper and it is the expectation of the company to secure a greater oil flow, but if they do not, the present flow means much for this section.

Many people are flocking to Santa Rosa and the town is livelier than at any time since the railroads were completed to this point.

CARTOONS OF PRESIDENT.

Ministers of Chicago Adopt Resolutions Condemning Them.

The Methodist ministers of Chicago don't like to see President Roosevelt pictured in cartoons. At a recent meeting they adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, the position of the chief magistrate of the United States is one of exalted honor in the estimation of all the world; and

"Whereas, it is both reasonable and Scriptural that all due respect should be shown the president of our country as the ruler of a great and free people; therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Chicago Methodist preachers' meeting, that we respectfully call the attention of the publishers and editors of secular magazines and papers to the fact that cartoons in which the president is represented in ridiculous attitudes are belittling both to him and to the public that tolerates them, and have a tendency to foster a spirit of contempt for those in authority, and may lead misguided individuals to the commission of acts of personal violence."

OUT AT NEEDLES.

A Traveler Writes a Few Words From Needles, Cal.

Needles, Nov. 18.—In a land where perpetually the rays of the glistering sands rise to meet the slanting rays of a southern sun, picturesque in location, sheltered by mountains and resting on the western shore of the busy, whirling, rumbling Colorado river, is the little town of Needles. Its name implies but little. Not many miles distant from the town are a group of formidable sharp-peaked mountains. Some stories are told about these mountains. It is claimed by legend that a mighty giant at one time inhabited these peaks and stored immense wealth near the summits of them. It goes that this monster gouged a hole in the top of one of the peaks for a lookout. This hole or eye, as it is called by the natives of the country, is called the needles eye and hence the townspeople of Needles found a pretty name for their quiet town. It was an Indian town before the railroad came. Needles is prettiest in the winter. It is pretty in its quietness, with its evergreen parks and low red roofed houses. Although it has 2,000 inhabitants, not more than two or three two-story buildings are to be found in the town. There is a quietness imparted with the mellowness of the winter sun, the air stirs the leaves of the trees only occasionally, the people are naturally quiet and peaceful, and the town slumbers year in and year out, but for the rumble and shriek of the trains and the day after the coming of the pay checks.

The life of the average railroad man in a desert town is like a dream. He wakes once a month when the pay checks come. The day after pay day, the Needles is a lively place. The merchants, gaming houses and saloons go a good business. The single railroad man of a desert town lives for a day or two. After his bills are paid and his money all gone, he drops back into the usual routine of the day and week, and slumbers for another thirty days. When his pay check comes again, the same scene is played again and so on, year in and year out.

The Needles is a most pleasant place to spend the winter. It never gets very cold and the only overcoats ever seen are those worn by tourists who alight from the passing trains. The city is furnished with water and gas systems, and an electric light plant is anticipated. It has some very good hotels. A gentleman of leisure could make Needles the headquarters of a very pleasant winter. The bottom lands along the Colorado river abound with small game. Quail and ducks, especially, are plentiful. Fishing is not very good, but some few good ones have been caught. The Mojave Indians, the expert beadwork makers, make the Needles their trading post. They are probably the most interesting of Indians. They have broad foreheads and average some larger than the average American, and like all Indians, are particularly fond of bright colors. It is remarkable how much time they will spend on a piece of beadwork for a few cents, with which to buy a bright red handkerchief.

The frame residence of J. W. Harrison, a merchant at Glorieta, caught fire Wednesday from the range and was, with its contents, completely destroyed. The house was the most pretentious in Glorieta and the loss was $2,500, with $1,000 insurance. All the furniture, including a valuable piano, was burned.

QUICK ACTION FOR STATEHOOD.

How New Mexico May Get It by the Next Fourth of July.

Hon. W. A. Hawkins, a member of the next legislative council of New Mexico, who is in El Paso from Alamogordo, says that the omnibus statehood bill provides for an early election for a constitutional convention in each territory; limits the session of the convention to thirty days; allows a few weeks for a vote on the constitution and then upon its adoption the legislature can meet in special session and elect senators; the election for governor and state officers will occur at the same time as the vote on the constitution. Congress does not take any action after passing the statehood bill, if a constitution be adopted.

If the statehood bill passes December 10 New Mexico may have senators elected and state officers in control by next July.

The advent of statehood will bring a lively scramble for senatorships. There are many possible candidates out in the brush. Hon. T. B. Catron has had the honor in view as long as did Hon. Thomas Patterson, of Colorado before he made the turn. Governor Otero has been building fences since he became prominent; Senator Andrews, of Hillsboro, who shrewdly secured a two-party nomination for the council, is desirous of sitting with his old comrade, Senator Quay. There may be others. Combinations may result in giving one senator to each end of the territory. A combination may elect some shrewd politician who is not a millionaire.

No man can now forecast the outcome.—El Paso News.

WEAK NERVES

Are generally caused by the blood becoming impure, thereby depriving them of the proper strengthening nourishment. To cure weak nerves you must therefore first purify and cleanse the blood. Then you need Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It will perfect the digestion, make an abundance of healthy blood, strengthen the nerves and cure Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness and Malaria. Try it and be convinced.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

W. A. Brown, of Franklin, Pa., who is one of those financially interested in the smelter, has been on the ground giving his personal attention to its operation for two months. The new superintendent was formerly superintendent of the El Paso smelter, and they have introduced many appliances for the economy of labor in the future. One device recently added is for the purpose of saving every particle of valuable metal, much of which is frequently lost in the slag.

It is the intention of the company in the near future to install the most complete plant for separating zinc and lead that can be obtained. As soon as this is done the ores of the Cochiti district can be utilized, as they obtain almost equal parts of lead and zinc with silver. A process for this separation is in successful operation in many different fields and one of that kind is now treated at a profit when it was formerly considered unprofitable. This plant is expected to be in operation within a few weeks and a boom in the Cerrillos district is then probable.

A Dangerous Month.

This is the month of coughs, colds and acute catarrh. Do you catch cold easily? Find yourself hoarse, with a tickling in your throat and an annoying cough at night. Then, you should always have handy, a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. J. A. Anderson, 354 West Fifth St., Salt Lake City, writes: "We use Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. It gives immediate relief. We know its best remedy for these troubles. I write this to induce other people to try this pleasant and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Silver City will not be honored by a visit from the United States senators, and in order to make up for this disappointment, New Mexico Senators Thos. Hughes and George F. Albright, of Albuquerque, came into town on yesterday's train and remained over until evening. They were accompanied by Sheriff Thomas S. Hubbell, of Bernalillo county. The gentlemen stated their mission to be in the interest of the next territorial fair, but as a matter of fact it was of a political nature. All are good fellows and their many Silver City friends were only too glad to see them, no matter what their business.—Independent.

Best Liniment on Earth.

I. M. McManey, Greenville, Texas, writes, Nov. 2, 1903: "I had rheumatism last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism. For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. A Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, exposes the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Briggs & Co.

Water Color Exhibition.

Cured of Piles After 40 Years.

Mr. C. Hancy, of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Briggs & Co.

One Minute Cough Cure. Is the only harmless cough cure that gives quick relief. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, pneumonia, asthma, la grippe, and all throat, chest and lung troubles. I got soaked by rain, says Gertrude E. Fenner, Muncie, Ind., and contracted a severe cold and cough. I failed rapidly; lost 48 lbs. My druggist recommended One Minute Cough Cure. The first bottle brought relief; several cured me. I am back to my old weight, 148 lbs. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, relieves the cough at once, draws out inflammation, cures croup. An ideal remedy for children. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Briggs & Co.

Gen. Booth in Northwest.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—General William Booth, who is making a tour of America, has reached St. Paul and will divide the next two days between this city and Minneapolis. In addition to several public meetings the general will engage in conferences with the officers and leaders of the Salvation Army, who are here from many parts of Minnesota, South Dakota, North Dakota, Michigan and Wisconsin to meet their chief.

A LONG-LETT WANT.

It is Supplied at Last in Albuquerque. Good-natured people are often irritable.

If you knew the reason, you would not be surprised. Ever have itching piles? Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content. The constant itching sensation. Hard to bear; harder to get relief. Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy. Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want? You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen. J. Johnston, machinist in the Santa Fe R. R. shops, residence 705 South First street, says: "When a man has itching hemorrhoids commonly called piles and he has to work every day the annoyance becomes positively a plague and he is more than anxious to get rid of it. When Doan's Ointment first came to my notice I wrote to the manufacturers for a box and used it as directed. It stopped the attacks. I have not the slightest hesitation in advising all residents of Albuquerque if annoyed in any way with hemorrhoids or piles to go to the Alvarado Pharmacy, buy Doan's Ointment, take a course of the treatment and the annoyance will cease."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Anniversary of Historical Event.

Baltimore, Nov. 22.—Arrangements have been concluded by the Society of Colonial Wars in Maryland for their annual celebration and banquet to be held this evening at the Hotel Remont. The speaker of the evening is to be President Sylvester of the Maryland Agricultural college. This day, which is marked on the calendar as Saint Cecilia's, has a double significance for the society, as it marks the anniversary of the sailing of the Ark and Dove from Cowes, Isle of Wight, in 1633. This vessel was the one from which disembarked at St. Mary's, Md., on March 25, 1634, the English settlers of Maryland who followed the leadership of Lord Baltimore. Today is the 269th anniversary of the event.

If you are bilious and seeking advice.

Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Just before going to bed. You will find on the morrow. You are rid of your sorrow. That's all; just enough said. These famous pills do not gripe, move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, preventing a return of the disorder. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Briggs & Co.

Pope Holding Court.

A letter from Judge William H. Pope to Francisco Delgado, of Santa Fe, says he reached Taoblan on September 4, and has been holding court six days a week since. The work is pleasant and not unlike that in New Mexico, while the surroundings are beautiful. There is an abundance of banana and coconut trees and the ocean is in the immediate front of the court house. The weather is delightful with the nights cool enough for a blanket and the days warm. He expected to finish the work in that province the middle of November and then go to Mindanao.

A household necessity. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

Heals burns, cuts, wounds of any sort; cures sore throat, croup, catarrh, asthma; never fails.

B'nai B'rith.

It was to organize this celebrated Jewish philanthropic and protective association that Dr. Kaplan came up from Albuquerque, and he and Dr. Lefkowitz were quite successful in their combined efforts. A temporary organization was effected, with thirty-five members, J. Judell being selected for president, Saul Rosenthal for secretary and Ike Davis for treasurer.

Alfred Muller, a noted lawyer of Denver, will be down in a few weeks and will initiate the new members, and then a permanent organization will be effected. This society is in almost every city of any size where Jews abound.—Las Vegas Optic.
